As we gather for worship we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which the Mi'kmaq peoples first signed with the British Crown in 1725. The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but in fact recognized Mi'kmaq title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Confession

Merciful God,

*in baptism you promise forgiveness and new life,
making us part of the body of Christ.*

*We confess that we remain preoccupied with ourselves,
separated from sisters and brothers in Christ.*

*We cling to destructive habits, hold grudges,
and show reluctance to welcome one another;*

we allow the past to hold us hostage.

*In your loving kindness, have mercy on us,
and free us from sin.*

*Remind us of the promises you make in baptism
so that we may rise to new life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.*

AMEN.

Living Faith, Baptism, 7.6.1-2 & 7.6.5

Baptism is a sign and seal of our union with Christ and with his church. Through it we share in the death and resurrection of Christ and are commissioned to his service. In Baptism, water is administered in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. The water signifies the washing away of sin, the start of new life in Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Baptism assures us that we belong to God. In life and in death our greatest comfort is that we belong to our faithful Saviour Jesus Christ.

*Sung Refrain (tune on inside front cover of “The Book of Praise”):

There is one true God whom to know is life eternal, whom to serve is joy and peace.
