As we gather for worship we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which the Mi'kmaq peoples first signed with the British Crown in 1725. The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but in fact recognized Mi'kmaq title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Gracious God and author of life,
have mercy on us for we have acted in ignorance...
We have rejected you and turned from your ways.
Forgive us for those times
when we have been deliberately hateful, when we should have loved,
been hostile when we should have been gracious,
resentful when we should have been merciful.
Grant us your forgiveness and help us to repent
that our sins may be wiped out;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

*Affirmation of faith (Unison)

From Living Faith, 3.3 “Jesus Christ:

Truly human”

Jesus was truly human. Tried and tested as we are, yet without sin, he experienced the depths of life. Jesus understands us. He felt the joy of friendship, the pain of rejection, and died a human death. He trusted the Father completely and lived in the Holy Spirit. Neither temptation nor threat prevented him from loving God and his neighbour as himself. He showed us what it means to be a child of God.

*Sung Refrain (tune on inside front cover of “The Book of Praise”):

There is one true God whom to know is life eternal, whom to serve is joy and peace.
